

SUMMER SCHOOL PROGRAM

Integrated Management Approaches and Sustainable Tourism Strategies for Biosphere Reserves

Tepilora, Rio Posada and Montalbo MaB UNESCO Biosphere Reserve - Sant'Anna di Lodè (NU) – Tepilora Regional Parck - Sardinia, Italy

lesson	workshop/group work	experience – study visit	recreation activity
--------	---------------------	--------------------------	---------------------

	13-07	14-07	15-07	16-07	17-07	18-07	19-07	20-07
	Breakfast in the farmhouse seat of the summer school.
9-11	Summer school shuttle-buses collect the participants in Olbia and Alghero/Sassari airport or harbour and drive them to Sant'Anna di Lodè, seat of the summer school.	MaB UNESCO Program and Biosphere Reserve goals MaB UNESCO [P. Pypaert]	The role of Sustainable Tourism in circular economy strategies for BRs [P. Grigolli]	The territorial development and the hydro-geological hazard: theoretical approaches and the Posada example. [prof. Antonio Funedda, University of Cagliari]	Archaeological potential for sustainable tourism: theoretical approaches and the Sardinia example. [prof. Carlo Lugliè, University of Cagliari]	Rural and forestry potential for local sustainable development: theoretical approaches and the Sardinia example. [prof. Emanuela Marrocu, University of Cagliari]	guided visit to chees micro-factory guided visit to a traditional bakery	Group work elaboration with tutor help
11-13		Integrated approaches and methods for the BR sustainable management [prof. M. Scullo, Univ. of Athens]		(first part) Introduction to the Education for Sustainable Development [prof. M. Scullo, Univ. of Athens]	guided visit to the Posada river and Maccheronis lake. Illustration of recent flood damage and protection infrastructures.	guided visit to the archaeological site “Romanzesu Nuragic Sanctuary”	trekking in the “Usinavà cantiere forestale” and guided visit to the forestall and environmental protection activities and structures.	guided visit to a traditional agricultural firm lunch	in the farmhouse seat of the summer school.	in the farmhouse seat of the summer school.	in the farmhouse seat of the summer school.	pocket lunch prepared by the farmhouse	pocket lunch prepared by the farmhouse	pocket lunch prepared by the farmhouse	in the farmhouse seat of the summer school.	in the farmhouse seat of the summer school.

	lesson		workshop/ group work		experience – study visit		recreation activity
--	--------	--	----------------------	--	--------------------------	--	---------------------

	13-07	14-07	15-07	16-07	17-07	18-07	19-07	20-07
15-17	participant presentation and team building activities [MEdIES] Distribution of materials (maps, documents, etc)	Presentation of the “Tepilora, Rio Posada e Montalbo” Biosphere Reserve [Filippo Lenzerini]	(second part) Introduction to the Education for Sustainable Development [I. Alampei & V. Psallidas, MEdIES]	guided visit to the archaeological site “Nuraghe di San Pietro” in Torpè	guided visit to the Bitti’s museum of “Canto a Tenore” UNESCO immaterial heritage	trekking in the “Usinavà cantiere forestale” and guided visit to the forestall and environmental protection activities and structures.	Group work elaboration with tutor help	Summer school shuttle-buses drive participants to Olbia and Alghero/Sassari airport or harbour.
17-19	Presentation of the summer school program and aims [prof. M. Scoullas, UoA]	guided visit to “Montalbo” in collaboration with Lode’s CEAS*	bike & kayak in the river Posada Delta with Posada’s CEAS*	meeting with UNESCO Geopark “Parco Storico Geominerario della Sardegna” -Franceco Muntoni	Group work elaboration with tutor help	Group work elaboration with tutor help	guided visit to Siniscola’ costal area with Siniscola’s CEAS
dinner	in the farmhouse seat of the summer school						pocket lunch on the beach
sera	guided visit to Posada’s historical town centre	meeting with local administrators	traditional dance exhibition	splitting of the participants in 5 groups, group work aims and way of work	“Canto a tenore” exhibition	guided visit to Onanì and media point project	midnight see-bath

* Environment and Sustainability Education Centre